TOEFL POLICY

All applicants whose native language is not English must present evidence of proficiency in English by satisfactorily completing the Test of English as a Foreign Language examination (TOEFL).

A total TOEFL iBT score of at least 88 on the Internet-based version, with a minimum score of 18 in each of the four section scores (speaking, listening, writing, and reading) is required.

An official report of these scores must be received by the Registrar's Office prior to the application deadline date for the program to which the applicant has applied. To obtain information or to register to take the TOEFL, you may visit the TOEFL Web site at <http://www.toefl.org> or write to:
